BY THE COURT:

On the court's own motion, the above cases are consolidated. The cases are ordered consolidated for all further appellate procedures except that they will retain their respective case numbers. Whenever documents are submitted for filing by the parties, an original must be presented for each case number, however, if copies of documents are required pursuant to the California Rules of Court, the parties need only submit a maximum of four. The cases will be considered for decision together.

The record on appeal filed in C033943 shall be the record for both cases numbers, and was filed November 4, 1999. Because the appellants in C033943 are appealing an order terminating their parental rights, both cases shall be governed by rule 39.1a of the California Rules of Court..

Appellants' combined opening briefs are due on or before December 6, 1999, Respondent's brief shall be served and filed within 30 days thereafter, and any reply brief or brief filed on behalf of the minors shall be filed within 20 days after filing of respondent's brief. If a request for oral argument is not filed within 15 days after filing of appellants' reply briefs, or expiration of the period in which to file appellants' reply briefs, oral argument will be deemed waived.

The court requires that counsel strictly comply with rule 39.1a in filing briefs and requesting augmentation of the record and oral argument. Extensions of time will be granted only upon EXCEPTIONAL showing of good cause.

Failure to comply with the time constraints of rule 39.1a may result in the imposition of sanctions.
